

Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 12 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells. Scattered showers breaking out.

Today:
Patches of mist and fog quickly dispersing to leave a bright day with sunny spells. Scattered showers developing this morning, some heavy and slow moving this afternoon. Feeling quite warm in the afternoon sunshine. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers dying away this evening then a dry night with clear periods. A few mist and fog patches forming later tonight. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Early mist soon dispersing to leave another bright day with sunny spells. Scattered showers again developing later in the morning with a few heavier showers in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A lot of dry weather with some sunshine but scattered showers breaking out each afternoon, dying away each evening. Light winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.